Due to illness, GAMBINO was not served relative to either of his scheduled appearances.

On 2/4/58 AUSA WILLIAM S. LYNCH, SDNY, advised [redacted] that subject is presently at the Colonial Inn, Miami Beach, Fla., and probably will be there for several weeks. AUSA LYNCH said that since it appeared that GAMBINO was well enough to travel, he should be well enough to appear before a CJ but that he did not desire to issue a subpoena to him immediately because of the travel expense involved, if the desired information could be obtained from him in another way.

Accordingly, he made the request that Bureau Agents interview GAMBINO at the Colonial Inn at Miami Beach as to why

In instituting such an interview, AUSA LYNCH suggested that Agents direct GAMBINO'S attention to the fact that he undoubtedly is aware that subpoenas have been issued for his appearance before the EUG, SDNY, but were not served because of his illness, and that the AUSA, SDNY, desired that the interview be conducted in lieu of directing a new subpoena to him in Miami to appear, returnable immediately.

Bureau permission is requested for Miami to conduct the interview requested by AUSA LYNCH and for this office to furnish the results thereof to the office of the USA, SDNY.

It is to be noted that GAMBINO'S hospitalization was due to a heart condition. If Bureau permission for the interview is granted, Miami should first contact Doctor [REDACTED] for his opinion as to whether such interview would be prejudicial to his health.

[REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was meeting two aliens, a mother and son, whom he only knew as "Io Piccolo" (phonetic).

On February 24, 1958, Customs Agents [REDACTED] United States Customs Service, 201 Verick Street, New York, New York, advised SA [REDACTED] that he received information from the Bureau of Narcotics on January 22, 1958, to the effect that [REDACTED] had secured six Customs dock passes in order to enable him and some other people to visit the SS Vulcania arriving at Pier 84 on January 22, 1958.

The names appearing on the passes were reported not the true names of the persons appearing in [REDACTED] party. [REDACTED] pointed out that each passenger is normally entitled to one pass which permits two people to visit the passenger. He stated that undoubtedly [REDACTED] had utilized the fictitious names to permit the entire party to greet the new arrivals. b7C

[REDACTED] advised that a surveillance was conducted jointly by the Customs agents and agents of the Bureau of Narcotics while these individuals were on the pier, and it was noted that all met a passenger named [REDACTED]. D. CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

1. Narcotics

JOHN T. CUSACK, District Supervisor, Bureau of Narcotics, testified before the New York State Joint Legislative Committee on Government Operations on January 9, 1958, at Albany, New York, regarding the meeting held at Apalachin, New York, on November 14, 1957. He testified that the United States Bureau of Narcotics became particularly interested in this meeting as reports from Apalachin indicated that at least three narcotic violators of major importance were present.

The following is an excerpt of CUSACK's testimony concerning GAMBINO:

"CARLO GAMBINO

"FBI number 34450, New York City Police Department B Number 12876.

"CARLO GAMBINO and his brother, PAUL (GAMBINO), have long been known to the Bureau of Narcotics as important leaders in the Mafia and intimate associates of SALVATORE LUCANIA, with alias, "Lucky" Luciano.

"GAMBINO's record dates back to December 12, 1930, when he was arrested for larceny in the operation of the "handkerchief pill game." He subsequently was convicted on several occasions for violation of the Federal alcohol tax laws.

"During the spring of 1948, reliable information obtained from a Bureau of Narcotics source indicated that CARLO GAMBINO travelled clandestinely to Palermo, Sicily, where he joined his brother, PAUL (GAMBINO), who had fled to Italy to avoid prosecution in a Federal alcohol tax case. The GAMBINOS were reported to exercise control of the narcotic smuggling activities between the Mafia element in Palermo and the United States on behalf of SALVATORE LUCANIA and during 1948, both GAMBINO brothers met with LUCANIA at the home of their relatives in Palermo, Sicily.

"Investigation conducted by the Bureau of Narcotics after 30 some odd Sicilian aliens had been smuggled into the United States aboard the SS Panormis at the Port of Philadelphia during May, 1948, disclosed that CARLO GAMBINO was involved in the smuggling of these aliens and that some of these aliens in turn had smuggled substantial quantities of heroin into the United States as payment for being brought into the country.

"Investigation further developed the information that among those interested in the smuggling of these aliens was a representative of the Santo Sorge Trading Company, 196 First Avenue, New York City. This company is operated by SANTO SORGE, an intimate associate of SALVATORE LUCANIA, and it will be recalled that immediately prior to his apprehension at the Apalachin JOSEPH BONANNO was observed at Palermo, Sicily, in the company of SANTO SORGE."

Regarding the foregoing testimony of JOHN T. CUSACK, District Supervisor, United States Bureau of Narcotics, it is to be noted that substantial portions of CUSACK's testimony were observed by SA [REDACTED] reproduced in the "Journal American", a daily newspaper published in New York City, on January 10, 1958.
